COLLEGE DINNER

Last Friday night an Informal College Dinner was held in Commons Hall. This was the second of the year, and the College opinion seems to be that the desirability of such functions is now decided. A very good meal was served by Steward Merz, during which popular and improvised ditties were indulged in. After the coffee, "Dick" Drummond, '00, was called upon. His remarks elicited enthusiasm, which culminated in his proposal to re-engage Coach Pryor. To make such action financially possible, the respective class presidents pledged a total of over $150, and Glover pledged $25 for the Juniors on the Football Team, and Professor Sicard $125 in behalf of the younger alumni. "Capt." Smith,'08, also spoke, and Mr. Sherwin captivated the College. After song practice and myriads of cheers "Carissima" rang out in Hamilton fashion. The committee in charge was Butler, A. Osborn, and Spencer, of the Senior Class.

THE COLGATE GAME

The Varsity was defeated by Colgate last Saturday on Steuben Field, but not until after they had played the Maroon team to a standstill for the first thirty minutes of play. Colgate's four touchdowns were all made in the second half by steady pounding of the light Hamilton line. Notwithstanding the skill and swiftness of the Colgate team, they won the game by superior weight.

The College was proud of the showing made by the team during the first half. The ball was in Colgate's territory the greater part of the time, and their goal was severely menaced several times. It looked almost like a Hamilton victory, but that extra thirty pounds per man proved too much. Even in the second half, the Varsity fought hard, so that Colgate gained her 22 points only by using all the skill and weight they could command.

Drummond and Sidle were obliged to retire in the second half, and this weakened the team to a great extent. It would be unfair to single out any two or three men for especial commendation, the whole team played hard and played to win. They could have done no more.

At 2:30 the student-body marched on the field, headed by Smith's Band, of Utica, and took its place in the grandstand. Colgate, one hundred and fifty strong, appeared soon after, and took seats in the bleachers. Every courtesy was shown by the two rivals during the game.

The game in detail: Capt. Thomas won the toss, and chose to defend the south goal. Drummond kicked off to Loeber, who fumbled, Wisehart covering the ball. Sidle made 3 yards, and Welch added 5 more. A forward pass was intercepted by McCarthy. Successive line bucks brought 9 yards. Colgate penalized 15 yards for holding. The ball was fumbled and covered by Thomas on the 25-yard line. After a gain by Sidle, Drummond tried a drop-kick from the 30-yard line. The ball went a trifle wide. Waite punted to Fiske. Hamilton was penalized 15 yards on account of the failure of a forward pass. A forward pass to Leavenworth brought 28 yards. Fiske covered an on-side kick. Welch clipped off 8 yards around end, and Getman hit the line for 3 more. Welch's pass to Roenke was intercepted by Colgate. Line plunges gained 10 yards for Colgate, after which they went around the end for 15 yards. Manley gained 17 yards and McCarthy 3 more. Drummond broke thru and spoiled a play before it was under way. Next, Waite punted to Getman. Sidle hit the line for 2 yards, but Welch failed to gain. Drummond punted to midfield, and Leavenworth covered the ball. Welch was again thrown for a loss, and Drummond punted. Getman covered the ball. Hamilton was unable to gain and Drummond punted again. Colgate held for downs, and Hamilton received the ball on the 25-yard line. Welch gained 25 yards around the end. An on-side kick was covered by Colgate, but was fumbled. Thomas covered the ball. Drummond punted to Woodman, who was downed in his tracks by Fiske. Time called.

During the intermission, the College body marched around the field, forming a large "H" in the center of the field. From this position "Carissima" was sung.

Second Half. Waite kicked off, the ball going over the line. Drummond punted from the 25-yard line to Woodman, who gained 15 yards before being tackled. Waite punted beyond Hamilton's goal. Drummond kicked from the 25-yard line to Manley. Woodman and the other Colgate backs bucked the line for 20 yards. Colgate punted after being penalized 15 yards. Welch went around the end for 5 yards. Getman hit the line for 2 more. The distance was not made, and Drummond punted to the 45-yard line. Jones replaced Sidle. McCarthy ran the ball to the 10-yard line The next play put it over. Manley failed to kick the goal. Score, Hamilton 0, Colgate 5.

Drummond kicked to McCarthy, who ran with the ball to the 35-yard line. Colgate penalized for holding. Waite punted; Welch went around the end for 8 yards. A forward pass failed. Harper replaced McGovern at quarter and punted to Loeber. On the next play, Loeber made a long end run for a touchdown. Manley kicked the goal. Score, Hamilton 0, Colgate 11.

Baldwin replaced Drummond at tackle. Welch kicked off to Woodman, who returned the ball 15 yards. After a series of punts and quarterback runs, the ball was brought to Colgate's 25-yard line. Welch attempted a drop-kick, but McCarthy blocked it and ran with the ball 65 yards for a touchdown. Manley kicked the goal. Score, Hamilton 0, Colgate 17.

Colgate's last touchdown was made only after hard fighting by both teams. Hamilton's defense was greatly weakened by constant battering, so that the ball was brought to Hamilton's 30-yard line. Mitchell went in for Getman at fullback, and Bell substituted for Welch at right halfback. Loeber got away on another end run. No goal. The game ended in a series of punts. Final score, Hamilton 0, Colgate 22.

The line-up and officials were:

BASKETBALL CAPTAIN

Henry R. Roenke, of the Class of 1909, has been elected to succeed C. M. Wilson, of the same class, who has found himself unable to return to College this year, but who may re-enter next fall. Roenke was out of College his Sophomore year, but last year he played a versatile game at both guard and forward. It will be a difficult task that will be imposed upon Roenke to develop the team that prospects point toward, but he is competent and will be a man well qualified to lead an exceptionally successful team.

—The Theological Club met at Prof. Ibbotson's home, Wednesday evening, and under the leadership of Appleton, '09, discussed "The Future Life in the Old Testament."

—We hear so much about the poor scholarship of athletes that it is interesting to note that, of our regular football men, two stood High Honor for the past year, two stood Honor, the Captain won the German Prize, and almost all of the others except the Freshmen stand Credit.

—At the first Glee Club concert at New York Mills, the program for the evening will be necessarily short. As is usual in the fall concerts, the selections will be partly old and partly new. The men who will compose the clubs for the rest of the year will be chosen after this concert.

—The following men will be in the Football picture this year: '09, Thomas (Capt.), A. F. Osborn, (Mgr). Welch, Marriott, Roenke; '10, Glover, Leavenworth, Baldwin, Wheeler, Harper, Fiske; '11, Getman, Sidle, Mitchell, Wisehart, E. H. Jones; '12, Drummond, McGovern, Bell, Knox, W. L. Clarke.

—Directly after the Colgate game, last Saturday, the Beta of Sigma Phi entertained their guests at an Informal Tea. Among those present were: Mrs. Smyth and Mrs. Rogers; the Misses Hunter, Ogden, Baker, Winant, Kinney, Bagg and Devereaux, of Utica; and Miss Judson, of Vernon. Sherill Sherman, '04, Richard Sherman, '05, Mr. Rogers, '87, and Mr. DeAngelis, of Dartmouth.

—Nearly all of the Seniors have received prospectuses and application blanks of the "American Universities Club," of London. The proposal is to establish in London a club such as the university clubs now existing in so many cities, to which graduates and undergraduates of American Colleges and universities shall be eligible. The scheme is backed by such men as Woodrow Wilson and David Starr Jordan, and is being organized by George T. Knowles, Yale '92.

—Flagler, '11, has been elected to the D. T. Club, to take the place of Nixon, '11, who has left College.

—Dr. Thomas F. Nichols, Bowdoin '92, for ten years a member of the Hamilton College Faculty in the Department of Mathematics, has resigned the position which he recently held as a member of the Staff of the New York State Engineer, and is now engaged in engineering work near Phœnix, Arizona.

—The November "Lit" was delivered on the Hill last Monday.

—The Junior and Freshman Class pictures were taken last Wednesday, directly after Noon Chapel. The Sophomore picture will be taken in the near future.

DR. STRYKER RECOVERS

Dr. Stryker conducted Chapel exercises last Monday morning for the first time since his recent accident. The welcome given him by the student-body shows very plainly what a warm place he holds in the hearts of the undergraduates. Each class in turn, beginning with the Seniors, gave him their class yell, and in this way showed, to some extent, their pleasure in seeing his complete restoration to health.

THE COLLEGE HAS BEEN awaiting with eager interest an announcement of Dr. Davenport's plans for the future, especially with regard to his work on the Hill. On Monday last he declared his intention of continuing his courses so far as his new duties would permit. During the session of the Legislature he will be in Albany thru the middle of every week, coming home for the week-end, which will enable him to conduct, as usual, the seminar work in Political Science. His courses in Economics and Elementary Law will be turned over to a competent instructor, perhaps from one of the nearer colleges. In the spring, Dr. Davenport hopes to take up his customary work, as the Legislature will probably have adjourned before Easter vacation. The advantages are obvious which will accrue to the men electing Political Science from Dr. Davenport's legislative experience.

THE DEVELOPMENTS OF THE LAST week in the nation's politics can justify Hamilton to boast of the biggest man in the country—Hon. Elihu Root, '64. The man who is called to the highest, yet never seeks such, is the unusual man in public life. This has been the case of the Secretary of War in the recent agitation over the selection of Hon. T. C. Platt's successor. Politics may prevent the change, or the country's call may demand his retention, but whether in the Senate or in the Cabinet, Hon. Elihu Root gives Hamilton an enviable hold on fame.

PRESS CLUB

The second meeting of the Press Club was held in Commons Hall, Thursday afternoon. There was an attendance of about twenty-five fellows of all classes. The purpose of the meeting was organization. A. F. Osborn, '09, was elected temporary chairman. Officers were then elected.

This method of operation was then proposed and carried: "That there shall be six committees comprising the entire membership of the Club; that the names of these committees shall be:

Prep. School Alumniana—RENWICK, '10, Chairman.
Local Press Personals—
ENGS, '10, Chairman.
Prep. School Magazine Articles—
WILCOX, '09, Chairman.
Prep. School Fraternity Press—
BUTLER, '09, Chairman.
General Press Correspondence—
CROSS, '10, Chairman.
General Operation—
TRUAX, '09, Chairman.

The jurisdiction of these committees shall be as their titles suggest. The President shall appoint the chairmen of these committees, who shall have direction over the members of their respective committees. These committees shall in turn be selected from the Club by the chairmen.

In general the plan is to have the entire work of the organization systematically divided among committees whose jurisdictions shall be distinct and whose executive shall be solely responsible for the work of his committee.

There will be a room in South exclusively devoted to this committee work. The finances will be secured thru voluntary contribution. The Club already has in its treasury approximately thirteen dollars and from the attitude of many alumni, the prospects are bright for financial excellence.

The officers, as elected, are as follows: A. F. Osborn, '09, President; C. E. Leavenworth, '09, Vice-President; Glover, '10, Secretary; McLean, '09, Treasurer.

BASKETBALL

Basketball looks promising . In addition to Captain Roenke, Welch, Conklin, Hopkins, of 1909, Sherwin, 1910, Allen, Getman, 1911, remain of last year's squad. Some good men are reported in the Freshman Class. Tho the team will greatly miss the experienced ability of Wilson, '09, still there are several to whom the game is by no means new and who showed exceptional ability in pass work and shooting last season. With the infusion of a little new life, for which we are relying upon the Freshmen, we surely will have a team that will finish the season with a long list of victories to its credit.

A new policy will be followed this year. Instead of a long season, beginning after the Colgate game and lasting well into March, the schedule this year will be crowded into six weeks. The interest, it is hoped, will be greater than ever before, since we have great opportunities for success, and it remains with the College to show interest and enthusiasm enough to assure success.

There will be a limited practice this term, in which special attention will be given to shooting and handling the ball.

The tentative schedule follows:
Union, at Clinton, January 15th.
Hobart, at Clinton, January 22d.
St. Lawrence, at Clinton, Jan. 29th.
Tufts, at Clinton, February 4th.
Colgate, at Clinton, February 10th.
Union, at Schenectady, Feb. 17th.

Williams, at Williamstown, Feb. 18.
Trinity, at Hartford, Feb. 19th.
Tufts, at Boston, Feb. 20th.
Colgate, at Hamilton, March 2nd.
Class games will be during the week, February 22-27.

SOPHOMORE HOP

Despite the pessimistic outlook for a fall dance, the Sophomore Hop of the Class of 1911 was a decided success, if one may judge by the comments of those who attended. Of these last there was a goodly number. Freshmen were few and far between, but the other classes each had a good number of representatives

Dobson's Hall had been selected for the dance, and had been decorated in taste with College and school banners. Ryan, of Utica, furnished music for a full number of dances, and eminent satisfaction was generally expressed with the work of the musicians. Caterer Stockhauser, of Utica, served a supper, which left no room for improvement. The Patronesses were: Mrs. Carruth and Mrs. Lewis, of the Faculty, and Mrs. Gouge and Mrs. Westcott, of Utica. About seventy-five were in attendance, an irrefutable argument for the continuance of Sophomore Hop. All present expressed their pleasure in the arrangements. As usual, a special car was run back after the dance.

The Committee is unable to make a definite statement at the present time regarding the finances. It is assured, however, that there will be no deficit connected with the 1911 Hop. Many of the bills are already paid, and money is in sight for the others. The dance may be considered a success, if merely this feature is regarded.

DEBATING

The Senior Class has elected two members of its interclass debate team, the men chosen being Wallace and Rifenbark, who were conspicuous for good work in the interclass debate a year ago. The remaining two debaters and the alternate are to be chosen in the near future, as Dr. Stryker's stipulation that the debate shall occur before the end of January renders early preparation imperative. The Senior team, as is customary, will submit a question to the Junior debaters, who will then have the choice of sides for its discussion. The Junior debaters are Dounce, Sherwin, Judson, and Baldwin, with Leavenworth, '10, as alternate.

Dr. Squires has supervision over Senior debating, while Junior debating is under the direction of Prof. Lewis.

The annual debate with Union will be held here some time in the course of winter term. Union defeated the Hamilton team at Schenectady last year, and the attempt to regain our forensic laurels will be viewed with interest by the College. There are rumors that Syracuse considers sending us a challenge; should this occur it might result in a very interesting and profitable series of contests with the big university in one of the very few fields of competition in which we can meet Syracuse upon anything approaching even terms.

—Thru error, the name of the author of the second "Lit. Critique" of last week's issue was omitted—it is Root, '05, now on the New York Sun.

—Thompson, '06, who is at present a student in Princeton, lately had a call to preach in the Presbyterian Church of Westtown.

—The French Club met at the home of Prof. Shepard on Monday and continued the reading of "Le Monde Où l'on l'Ennui." "Cyrano de Bergerac" will be taken up in a few weeks.

HILL NOTES

—Nixon, '11, has left College. He will probably enter Cornell next year.

—A. F. Osborn, '09, has been elected to Buttinski to succeed Wilson, '09.

—Notice—A mail-box is a much-needed article at South College.

—Sherman, '04, Sherman, '05, and Sherman, '06, were in this vicinity on Wednesday.

—Adams, '12, after a long siege of pneumonia returned last Wednesday to resume his work.

—Profs. Squires, Miller, Carruth, and Lewis spoke at the Teachers Institute held in Clinton last week.

—The Junior set-up from the class officers will take the form of a treat to a matinee in Ute, in the near future.

—A large number of men intend to leave College for the Thanksgiving holiday.

—It has been rumored that the Football management will furnish hats for the men.

—Several pictures of various organizations have been offered for sale by the 1909 Hamiltonian Board.

—There have been several "spills" on the Hill lately, but so far no one has been injured.

—The Chapel Sunday service was led by Rev. L. C. Colson. John N. Forman, of India, assisted in the service.

—Coach Pryor, who will be at Hamilton next fall, has gone to Harvard, where he will coach the Basketball team.

—Added interest has been shown in the Bowling Clubs of late, and the Inter-Fraternity League will soon be restarted.

—There will be no noon Chapel on Wednesday, December 16th, altho speakers have been posted for that date.

—Dr. Stryker conducted Chapel exercises on Monday for the first time since his accident. He was warmly greeted by various class yells.

—Drummond, '12, has gone home to recuperate from football injuries received in the Colgate game. He will not return until after Thanksgiving.

—About half a dozen men from the College have joined the Clinton Choral Union. The Union met Wednesday at the home of Principal Wight.

—The Football Supplement of LIFE will be necessarily late this year owing to the delay of the Football picture, caused by the absence of some of the team.

—When the Sophs. got back to their rooms Thursday morning after the "Hop" many of them found them looking as tho a young cyclone had passed that way.

—The Yahnundahsis Club will give a complimentary dinner to Vice-President-Elect Sherman, '78, on the evening before Thanksgiving. A quartet from the College will render an enjoyable program, including several original parodies. There will also be several speeches by Hamilton men.

—Capt. Smith, of last year's Track Team, has been asked to join the Irish-American Athletic Club, and will hereafter run under the colors of that well-known organization.

—Prof. Preston, a graduate of Middlebury College, the well-known lecturer at State Institutes, favored the pedagogy class, last Friday with a valuable talk on the Principals of Education.

—The following Alumni have been on the Hill during the past week: Peck, '79, Rogers, '87, Smith, '90, Taggart, '96, Stryker, '01, Barnes, '02, Sherman, '04, Hoffman, '05, Sherman, '05, Root, '05, Kuolt, '07.

—The Sophomores must have decided that their picture was unworthy of the Hamiltonian, for they were not at hand when the time came Wednesday, but they treated the unsuspecting Freshies to a lovely shower-beath, nevertheless.

—Saturday, Dr. Wood made a trip to Holyoke, Mass., where he made an address before a club of business and professional men on "The Executive in an Industrial Democracy." During his stay in Holyoke, Dr. Wood was the guest of the family of Bagg, '07, and Bagg, '12.

—A meeting of the captains and managers of Football, Baseball, Basketball and Track was held on Friday night in Silliman Hall, to discuss Hamilton's relations with the N. Y. S. I. A. U. Harry Cookinham, '00, Sherman, '05, and Prof. Sicard represented the Alumni.

—The College was glad to hear that Dr. W. A. Shanklin, '83, had been called to, and had accepted, the Presidency of Wesleyan University. For the past ten or twelve years Dr. Shanklin has been President of Upper Iowa University, at Fayette, Iowa. It was from this university that "Square" Root received his last degree of LL. D. An article on Dr. Shanklin will be in next week's issue.
